

Which was read and referred to the committee on ways and means.

Mr. Beam presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Montgomery county, praying the call of a convention to revise the constitution of the state;

Which was read and referred to the committee of the whole house.

Mr. Winder presented a memorial of Nathaniel F. Williams, John I. Gross, Joshua Royston and others, citizens of the city of Baltimore, praying an amendment to the election law, so as to prevent illegal votes being taken at the poll in said city;

Which was read and referred to the committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. Winder also presented a memorial of S. A. Pearce, Joseph R. Foreman, S. A. Rollins, and others of the city of Baltimore, praying that the abuses practised in said city on the elective franchise, may be restrained by law;

Which was read and referred to the committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. Richardson presented a petition of Elizabeth Silratt, of the city of Baltimore, praying to be divorced from her husband Henry Silratt;

Which was read and referred to the committee on divorces.

Mr. Darby presented a petition of the President and Directors of the Rockville Savings Institution, praying that a law may pass extending their privileges, and authorising the establishing a bank, to be called the Montgomery county Bank, in Rockville;

Which was read and referred to the committee on ways and means.

Mr. Annan presented a petition of sundry citizens of Toms Creek Hundred, in Frederick county, praying aid from the state to complete the Northern turnpike road in said county;

Which was read and referred to the committee on internal improvement.

Mr. Annan also presented a petition of T. W. Johnson, and others, praying an act may pass to incorporate the trustees of the Retreat school house, in Frederick county;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Annan, Willis and Shriver.

Mr. Gittings presented a petition of sundry citizens of Montgomery county, praying the passage of a law, authorising the building of a new court house, in said county,